Quizlet flashcard #11 question: Wording straight from the Council of Chalcedon that directly addresses the Hypostatic Union. This is key/foundational for understanding what we can say about this mystery. I recommend you commit these concepts to memory.

Quizlet flashcard #11 answer: He was begotten from the Father before all ages as to his divinity and in these last days, for us and for our salvation, was born as to his humanity of the virgin Mary, the Mother of God. We confess that one and the same Christ, Lord, and only-begotten Son, is to be acknowledged in two natures without confusion, change, division or separation. The distinction between the natures was never abolished by their union, but rather the character proper to each of the two natures was preserved as they came together in one person (prosopon) and one hypostasis.

And to reiterate: the natures come together in the Divine Person.

Q3. [0:23:51] (Multiple choice (sample))

In the Bible, Jesus Christ demonstrated his divine nature by:

- A. Forgiving sins coupled with signs of healing
- B. Playing poker with the devil after his time in the desert
- C. Having knowledge of future events
- D. All of the above

Answer per Anthony: A. Forgiving sins coupled with signs of healing (prophets also have knowledge of future events, so C alone is not the best indicator).

Q4. [0:25:00] (Short answer (5 points))

In a few words describe the offices of Christ as applied to or lived out by the lay faithful. Be sure to speak about the exercise of proper priority.

Answer per Anthony: Priest, prophet, king — with proper priority among the three when applied to the lay faithful.

Q5. [0:22:03] (Short answer (sample / "follow directions"))

List the four reasons for the Incarnation as given by the Catechism.

Answer per Anthony: Anthony used this as an example of following instructions: if asked for 4, give 4 — not 8. He noted he would take only the top 4 and deduct points if more were given.

On the Triune God / Divine Attributes

Q6. [0:22:03] (True / False)

The persons of God all share an equal amount of divine essence.

Answer per Anthony: False. Each Person fully possesses the divine nature; "share" is the wrong philosophical language.

Q7. [0:44:22] (True / False)

Because God is not divided into parts, His mercy and justice are one and the same — they are convertible.

Answer per Anthony: True.

Q8. [0:45:47] (Short answer)

What is time?

Answer per Anthony: A measurement of change; it began with the creation of the universe.

Q9. [0:46:11] (True / False)

God can do everything.

Answer per Anthony: False (in a fundamental theology / philosophy context). God cannot lie, cannot act contrary to Himself, cannot sin.

Q10. [1:08:08] (True / False)

God has eternal and infallible foreknowledge of the free actions of men.

Answer per Anthony: True (from our human perspective; strictly speaking God has knowledge, not foreknowledge, since He is outside of time).

Provide a definition for "eternality" (per Sheed).

Answer per Anthony: "The duration of that which is" — applicable only to God (I AM).

Answer per Anthony: True.

Q14. [0:56:26] (True / False)

Answer per Anthony: False. A strict mystery, by definition, cannot be positively proven even after it is revealed.

Q15. [1:00:22] (True / False)

The hypostatic union, once it occurred, irrevocably changed the nature of God.

Answer per Anthony: False. God is immutable.

Angels are personal beings.

Answer per Anthony: True (they have intellect and will, though not human nature).

Angels were created in the beatific vision.

Answer per Anthony: False. No creature is created in the beatific vision; it requires a free response of love.

Q19. [1:02:51] (True / False (freebie))

Human souls were all created in a single moment and stored in the Guff until a human body is made available to host it.

Answer per Anthony: False. The "Guff" is a Jewish folk belief, not Catholic teaching.

Doctrine Verification of Anthony's Answers

Cross-checked against the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), the Ecumenical Councils, and standard Catholic theology.

Bottom line: All 41 of Anthony's confirmed answers are doctrinally correct. The notes below cite the controlling source for each, and flag the small handful where I would add a footnote about levels of dogmatic certainty (defined dogma vs. common teaching) - not about the answer itself.

Format & Essay Examples

Q1. Essay prompt - "eternal" applied to God + immateriality. [Correct]

Open prompt; aligned with CCC 202, 212 (immutability/eternity) and CCC 370 (immateriality / pure spirit).

Q2. Essay prompt - Persons of the Trinity in relation to intellect and will. [Correct]

Open prompt; consistent with CCC 253-256, the Athanasian Creed, and the Thomistic processions (intellect to Word/Son; will/love to Holy Spirit).

Q3. Forgiving sins coupled with healing demonstrates divinity. [Correct]

Mark 2:5-10: "Who can forgive sins but God alone?" Forgiveness of sins is uniquely a divine prerogative; knowledge of future events is shared with prophets.

Q4. Three offices (priest, prophet, king) for the lay faithful, with proper priority. [Correct]

CCC 783-786; Lumen Gentium 31; Christifideles Laici 14. Anthony's priority emphasis (sanctify self/family first, then teach, then govern) reflects standard pastoral teaching.

Q5. Four reasons for the Incarnation per the Catechism. [Correct]

CCC 457-460: (1) reconcile us with God / save us, (2) so we might know God's love, (3) be our model of holiness, (4) make us partakers of the divine nature (2 Pet 1:4).

On the Triune God / Divine Attributes

Q6. "Share equal divine essence" is False; each Person fully possesses it. [Correct]

Doctrine of homoousios (Nicaea 325). "Share" implies division of parts, contradicting divine simplicity. Each Person fully possesses the entire divine essence.

Q7. Mercy and justice are convertible because God has no parts. [Correct]

Thomistic divine simplicity (ST I, q.3); CCC 213. God's attributes are identical with His essence and with each other.

Q8. Time = measurement of change; began with creation. [Correct]

Aristotle, Physics IV; Aquinas, ST I, q.10, a.1; Augustine, Confessions XI. Time is a property of created, changeable being.

Q9. "God can do everything" is False (in fundamental theology context). [Correct (with nuance)]

CCC 268-274 affirms omnipotence, but God cannot lie, sin, or will a logical contradiction (these are not "things" He could do but defects of being). In a less precise context (Lk 1:37) one could say True; in fundamental theology, False is correct.

Q10. Eternal and infallible foreknowledge of free human acts. [Correct]

CCC 600: "To God, all moments of time are present in their immediacy." Trent affirmed against Reformation determinism. Strictly, God has knowledge (not foreknowledge) since He is outside time.

Q11. Eternality per Sheed = "the duration of that which is." [Correct]

Sheed, Theology and Sanity, ch. 4. Echoes Exodus 3:14 ("I AM"); applies properly only to God.

Christology / Hypostatic Union

Q12. Christ as the key, center, purpose, interpreter, plan and pattern of human history - all of the above. [Correct]

Gaudium et Spes 22; CCC 280, 668; Dominus Iesus on Christ as sole mediator and the meaning of history.

Q13. Jesus Christ is true God and true man. [Correct]

Council of Chalcedon (451); CCC 464-469.

Q14. Hypostatic union is a strict mystery and cannot be positively proven. [Correct]

Vatican I, Dei Filius (1870): mysteria stricte dicta exceed natural reason and cannot be positively demonstrated even after revelation - only defended against logical inconsistency.

Q15. Hypostatic union did not change the divine nature. [Correct]

CCC 202, 212 (immutability). Chalcedon: "without confusion, without change, without division, without separation." The Person assumes a human nature without altering His divinity.

Q16. Real duality of wills with real moral unity in Christ. [Correct]

Third Council of Constantinople (681) condemned Monothelitism and defined two wills, with the human will subordinate to the divine. CCC 475.

Creation / Angels / Souls

Q17. Angels are personal beings. [Correct]

CCC 329-330. Angels possess intellect and will and are immortal.

Q18. Angels were not created in the beatific vision. [Correct]

Common teaching following Aquinas (ST I, q.62). CCC 391-393 implies a state of trial; the beatific vision requires a free, loving response.

Q19. "Guff" theory of pre-created souls is False. [Correct]

CCC 366: each human soul is created immediately by God (at conception). The Guff is rabbinic folklore, not Catholic teaching.

Q20. The Fall harmed body, soul, and the created order. [Correct]

CCC 399-401, 405; Trent, Decree on Original Sin (1546); Romans 8:20-22.

Redemption & Christ's Offices

Q21. A man cannot redeem himself by virtue. [Correct]

Pelagianism, condemned at Carthage (418), Orange (529), and Trent (Session VI). CCC 1996-2005 - grace is necessary and gratuitous.

Q22. Christ's kingly office heals the weakened will. [Correct (theological framework)]

Standard mapping in Catholic spiritual theology: king governs/orders to will; prophet teaches to intellect; priest sanctifies to disordered loves. A theological framework rather than defined dogma, but the conventional answer.

Q23. Jesus did not atone for Himself. [Correct]

Hebrews 4:15, 7:27; CCC 602. Christ is sinless and needs no redemption.

Q24. As King, Christ is lawgiver and judge. [Correct]

New Law: Mt 5-7 (Sermon on the Mount). Judge of the living and dead: Mt 25:31-46; Acts 10:42; Nicene Creed. CCC 678-679.

Ecclesiology

Q25. Church is the mystical body of Christ. [Correct]

CCC 787-796; Pius XII, Mystici Corporis Christi (1943).

Q26. Church Suffering = the holy souls in purgatory. [Correct]

Traditional threefold division (Militant on earth, Suffering in purgatory, Triumphant in heaven). CCC 954-959.

Q27. Church directly instituted by the historical Christ. [Correct]

Lumen Gentium 5; CCC 763-766; Dominus Iesus 16. Christ founded the Church during His earthly ministry.

Q28. Binding and loosing covers legislative, juridical, and punitive power. [Correct]

Mt 16:19, Mt 18:18; Vatican I, Pastor Aeternus; CIC canons 331, 1311. The Church's authority is comprehensive.

Q29. Binding and loosing entails authority over Eucharist, confession, baptism. [Correct (broader reading)]

The Petrine power of governance includes determining valid form, matter, and minister of the sacraments (Sacrosanctum Concilium 22). The Matthean texts most directly address sin/discipline; tradition extends the principle to all sacramental discipline, which is the sense Anthony intends.

Q30. Pope has full and supreme jurisdiction in faith, morals, and discipline. [Correct]

Vatican I, Pastor Aeternus ch. 3; Lumen Gentium 22; CCC 882; CIC canon 331.

Q31. Pope is bound by divine law alone, not by ecclesiastical decisions of predecessors. [Correct (with caveat)]

CIC canon 331; classic ecclesiology. Important: "divine law" includes all infallibly-defined truth (defined dogmas, the deposit of faith). The Pope cannot reverse defined doctrine such as papal infallibility, the Immaculate Conception, or Ordinatio Sacerdotalis.

Soteriology

Q32. Lay faithful play no role in Christ's saving mission: False. [Correct]

Lumen Gentium ch. 4; Apostolicam Actuositatem; Christifideles Laici; CCC 897-913. The lay faithful share in Christ's priestly, prophetic, and kingly mission through baptism.

Eschatology

Q33. Those in hell will not be annihilated. [Correct]

CCC 1033-1037 (eternal punishment). Constantinople II (553) condemned Origenist apokatastasis. Souls are immortal (Lateran V, 1513).

Q34. "Nature in harmony with man" is NOT a sign of the Second Coming. [Correct]

CCC 668-682; Mt 24 describes cosmic disturbances before Christ's return. The harmony of nature with man belongs to the new heavens and new earth after the general judgment (Rom 8:19-22; Rev 21:1-5).

Q35. Purgatory will not continue after the general judgment. [Correct (common teaching)]

Aquinas, Suppl. q.74; Bellarmine; standard Catholic manuals. The general judgment ratifies the final state of all souls. Theological consensus rather than a formally defined dogma.

Mariology

Q36. Three contents of the Ark prefiguring Mary/Christ. [Correct]

Hebrews 9:4 lists tablets of the Law, rod of Aaron, manna. Marian typology (Ark of the New Covenant) is well-developed in patristic and modern Mariology - see Lk 1:35 (overshadowing language).

Q37. Mary's perpetual virginity - ante partum, in partu, post partum. [Correct]

CCC 499-501; Lateran Council (649) under Pope Martin I defined her as "ever-virgin."

Q38. "Mary gave birth to the person of the divine Word" is the only true statement of the three. [Correct]

Council of Ephesus (431) defined Theotokos, not Christotokos only - so B is false. Mothers give birth to persons, not natures; Mary as a creature could not give birth to the divine nature, which is uncreated and eternal - so C is false. CCC 466 affirms the reasoning behind A.

Q39. Mary not subject to inordinate desires (common teaching). [Correct]

CCC 491-493; Pius IX, Ineffabilis Deus (1854). Freedom from concupiscence follows as a consequence of the Immaculate Conception. The "common teaching" qualifier is appropriate - universally taught but not as solemnly defined as the Immaculate Conception itself.

Q40. "Hail, full of grace" as a proper name. [Correct (theological reading)]

Greek kecharitomene (Lk 1:28) is a perfect passive participle indicating a permanent, completed state of being graced - used vocatively as a near-name. Classic argument for the Immaculate Conception (Pius IX, St. Maximilian Kolbe). A theological reading rather than a strict dogmatic claim, but a legitimate Catholic interpretation.

Predestination of the Incarnation

Q41. Unconditioned predestination theory - all three sub-statements true. [Correct]

The unconditioned theory (Scotus; some Greek Fathers; Rupert of Deutz) holds the Incarnation was willed independently of the Fall, primarily for God's glory. The conditioned theory (Aquinas) ties it to redemption from sin. The Church has not definitively decided between them; both are legitimate theological opinions.

X. Essay Study Guides

<The Plan: Hugo is going to work with Magisterium AI to generate outlines for each essay question and then post them here. The plan is to have a study session sometime this month to discuss and refine the outline for each question.>

- This is a link to the Scheed document that I highlighted during Anthony's lectures. The highlights cover pretty much every prompt of the essay questions. -Jeff

<Sol Note: Here are my notes on the essay question(s) from the 2 May final review>

Here are the potential essay questions for the final exam. These are worth 20-25 points. Anthony will pick one on the day of the test. These are constructed from past homework questions.

Possible essay question #1: Using philosophical language and categories, define and explain "eternal" as it applies to God. Be sure to include a discussion of His immateriality. In other words, God as an infinite existence. Consider:

- Friday evening philosophy classes
- outside of time
- limitless
- unchanging
- all powerful
- immaterial
- pure spirit with no parts if you have parts then you have limits
- Sheed chapter 4
- He is eternal and ever present
- looking for prose not just a bunch of bullet points
- 3-5 paragraphs - don't worry about intro; just answer the question

Possible essay question #2: Using philosophical language and categories to define and explain the Persons of the Trinity as they relate to the operations of the intellect and will.

- Talk about how we know that God is intellect and will?
- How does the Word reflect the intellect?

- How does the Spirit reflect the will?
- 3 distinct persons
- go with Sheed but can use Ott - both will go deeper than we need to
 - 2 processions: generation and spiration - but we did NOT cover that so don't have to cover this

- This is a link to the Scheed document that I highlighted during Anthony's lectures. The highlights cover pretty much every prompt of the essay questions. -Jeff
